

A Nagalro on-line Training Course:

A Year of Public & Private Law in Review

Remote training opportunity on Wednesday, 10 September 2025, 14:00 – 16:00 by Zoom

A review of the most important and interesting cases of the last 18 months.

Led by barristers from Coram Chambers: Catherine Nicholes, Gill Honeyman and Anarkali Musgrave

This training will cover new and important themes, significant Court judgements, President's Guidance, and thorny issues within the Family Courts during the last 12 to 18 months - it will be of interest to many members and professionals working within the Family Court System. There will also be opportunities for questions and discussion.

Some of the proposed areas to cover include:

- Transparency and the impact on ISWs / children and legal professionals
- A review of adoption and contact post adoption and how that is going in the courts
- Fact finding thresholds and delays
- Private law and relocation
- Pathfinder Courts and Child Impact Reports - how are these working?

For lawyers this seminar will attract 2 hours CPD.

Please note there is a bundle discount offer for this course jointly with the Nagalro autumn 2025 online conference 'Children who slip through the net' scheduled for Friday, 10 October 2025, 09.30 – 13.30 pm *(see prices highlighted below)
